

Gungahlin Jets – Juniors: Call for Auskick Rookie Coordinator

Position	Auskick Rookie Coordinator - volunteer
Closing Date	24 January 2019
Point of Contact	Lisa Burns
Email	juniors@gungahlinjets.com.au

Do you love AFL? Do you love fun?

The Gungahlin Jets are seeking a self-motivated and enthusiastic volunteer to run their weekly Auskick Rookie Program. With a strong focus on fun and participation, Auskick Rookies teaches 5-7 year old boys and girls the fundamentals of AFL in a team environment.

This is a highly rewarding position, providing the unique experience of seeing AFL through the honesty and joyfulness of Auskick participants and their families.

No previous experience is required, the Gungahlin Jets are looking for the right person or people for the role. You will be strongly supported by the Club through the provision of administration and practical support, guidance and advice.

Roles and responsibilities

Facilitate the Auskick Rookie program for the Gungahlin Jets
Weekly set up and pack down of Auskick activities
Communicate with parents and parent coaches
Provide 'game day' support to parent coaches
Monitor equipment

Requirements

- Level 1 Coaching Accreditation (or willing and able to obtain) – Club funded.
- Working with Vulnerable People Card (or willing and able to obtain)

Please email Lisa Burns at juniors@gungahlinjets.com.au to register your interest in the role or for further information.

The Gungahlin Jets Juniors place high importance on the values of respect, participation, fair play, sporting behaviour, team spirit and Club pride. All officials and representatives of the Gungahlin Jets Juniors will be expected to uphold and model behaviours that reflect these values.
